ON WAYS AND MEANS, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

342 Stock Exchange Building, Boston, Mass. Dear Senator: I have examined the list of lands belonging to the Export Oil and Pipe Line Co., and, in my opinion, their locality promises as good returns as any property in the oil fields upon which oil has not already been developed in paying quantities. The officers of the Company are men of known integrity and business qualifications, hence I believe an investment in this Company as safe, if not safer, than in any Company upon the properties of which there are not lies 150 ft. south, and the Beatty No. 2 145 ft.

southwest of the Export property.

These instances simply confirm, the already established fact that every well brought in on from the corn belt were still somewhat contradictory, but the decline in the price of corn gave color to the rumors of the break-up of the drought. The weather forecast was distinctly better.

The buying in Southern Pacific seemed to be of a special character and was based on the excellent crop reports from California and the realization of the fact that the road is only interested in the most indirect way in the corn crop. The steel stocks showed a stronger tone on the more hopeful outlook for a settlement of the labor difficulties.

The close was strong, especially in the granger stocks, where the covering of the extensive short interests and a favorable interpretation of the weekly Government crop report caused a sharp advance, which was maintained with slight reaction to the cloge. The whole market sympathized more or less and the sharp decline in corn and wheat was taken as a bull factor. Money continued very easy at 2½ per cent. The borrowing demand indicated considerable short interest in the market, particularly in the grangers.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New York, July 2.—There was a notable advance in American stocks in the London market, the gains in the case of St. Paul and Union Pacific extending to 3 points in the early trading. There was a some recession from the best prices of the day, but the close was firm. Consols were a trifle easier and the general market was steady. Exchange had a hardening tendency in Berlin. In the local market there was a very irong questing on the higher London prices, the reports of rain in the corn belt and the general evidence that the market had been considerably oversold on the crop damage.

The most important railies were in Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, St. Paul and the general evidence that the market had been Considerably oversold on the crop damage.

Bank and Trust Stocks Attracted Little Attention and Were Lower.

The effects of the long spell of torrid reather on the local stock market was felt more at yesterday's session of the exchange than on any previous day since the heated term set in several weeks ago. This was shown in the lack of interest taken in certain stocks, the small number of orders on the market to be executed, outside of railways, and the fact that there were a large number of securicles, that have heretofore been considered as being on the active list, that were not even quoted on the buying or the sealing side, white in several cases the market value of these securities was lower. The one particular reasure of the market yeaterusy was Transit stock, for which there were heavy buying and selling orders, and which was deait in to the amount of 1,0.0 snares at $26.50, with that bid for more at the close and $25.75 asked. Little interest appeared to be taken in the market for railways outside of the above-mentioned stock. Some inquiry was made for preferred, but buying orders were small, sales for the day amounting to fifty-seven snares only. The market had a strong undertone, however, and $8.75 was paid for the above-mentioned lot, which was $\frac{1}{2}$ point up for the day, and at which the market closed buyer, and $73 sellers. The 4s were very quiet, but one selling, and that brought $30.50, the selling price during the day. he market to be executed, outside of rail-selling price during the day. Midsummer duliness continues to charac-terize the market for local bank and trust and a majority of the stocks quoted, were largely lower than a week or two ago, when everything was on the boom. This does not mean that the financial institutions of this city are making less money. On the contrary it is still claimed that their earnings are fully up to the standard. It is that the demand has fallen off, chiefly because many wealthy investors, who are that the demand has fallen off, chiefly because many wealthy investors, who are accustomed to trade in these stocks are out of the city for the summer. Yesterday's market was especially noticeable for the duliness and weakness displayed in trust

stocks, which were off in price from ½ to 3 points since the day before and were not traded in at all. There was one trade made in bank stocks, and that was in 25 shares of National Bank of Commerce, which sold at $2.0. All other stocks were dead duli and weak, with the single exception of Merchants-Laclede National, which was in demand and quoted at $200 bid and $233 asked.

There were no developments of importance in the market for Missouri-Edisons. There was a demand for common stock and $20.50 was bid, but the preferred was dull and lower to sell at $58, with only $54.50 bid. Suburban stock was not quoted, and no mention was made of Automatic Coupler stock. Brewery bonds yesterday were weak and call, the best bid being $94.50 and $94.75 asked. Mining stocks of all kinds were neglected.
